French War-Brides-to-Be Are Late at Marriage Bureau.

ward Hart is perpetuated through his bestowal on sundry and diverse new kids, the reason is not far to find.
The French liner La Savole yesterday brought a large number of French war brides-to-be. Most of them were not by their prospective bridegrooms and hurried off to the marriage license bu-

GOV. SPROUL HEARS EXTRADITION PLEA IN THAW'S CASE

Swann's Men Present Affidavits for Return Here to Answer Assault Charge.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 9.—Extradition of Harry K. Thaw from Pennsylvania to New York City, where it is desired to try him on an indictment charging him with assaulting Frederick Gump of Kansas City, in New York several years ago, was asked of Gov. Sproul and Attorney General Schaffer at a hearing this afternoon by officials of the New York District Attorney's office.

Thaw was represented by former Judge James G. Gordon of Philadelphia. Efforts were made to extradite Thaw during the administration of Gov. Brumbaugh, but he refused to honor the extradition papers on the ground that Thaw had been declared insane and that it was legally impossible to extradite an insane man.

With the departure this morning for Harrisburg of Assistant District Attorneys Robert Johnstone and Edwin P. Kilroe to argue before Gov.
Sproul of Pennsylvania for the extradition of Harry K. Thaw, it became known that for some time the New York authorities have had private detectives lodged as inmates in the insane asylum where Thaw is confined.

Affidavits from these detectives will be read to Gov. Sproul showing that Thaw has been living a life of luxurious ease, that he has been permitted to visit theatres and cabarets, to have with him in frequent attendance a private secretary and a lawyer and to leave the State of Pennsylvania to be the guest of a Philadelphia official at Sea Girt, N. J.

Frank P. Walsh, who has just returned from the Peace Conference, is expected to join Johnstone and Kilroe in the extradition fight. Walsh is counsel for the Gump family.

Thaw's attack on young Gump occurred two years ago at the Hotel McAlpin. Afterward Thaw fled to Philadelphia, where he attempted to commit suicide. He has since been confined—when he hasn't been enjoying special liberties—in Kirkbride Asylum, a private institution for the insane, at Philadelphia.

REFUSES TO JAIL PEDDLER.

Old Man Denied License Gets Suspended Sentence a Second Time.

Solomon Zumer, an old man living at No. 216 Delancey Street, was brought before Judge Hiss yesterday charged with peddling without a license. To-day he was again arrested and brought into Essex Market Court.

"He was given a suspended sentence yesterday," the policeman told the Judge. His Honor looked into the case, and found that Zumer had a wife and three children and was afflicted with diabetes. He again suspended sentence.

"This man has a family and is very sick. The Commissioner refuses to grant him a license to peddle. I do not expect him to steal, so I am again suspending sentence," said Judge Hiss.
